Summit State Bank Welcomes Linda Bohn as Assistant Vice President and Business Systems Manager

Santa Rosa, CA – (June 17, 2019) – Summit State Bank (NASDAQ: SSBI) welcomes Linda Bohn as their new Assistant Vice President and Business Systems Manager.

“We are pleased to welcome Linda as a valuable addition to the Summit team. Her knowledge and expertise will be instrumental in supporting the Bank’s initiative for process and customer service improvements. Linda’s experience on the customer side of our business is of utmost importance to us and will support our ongoing commitment to provide excellent customer service,” said Jim Brush, President and CEO of Summit State Bank.

Linda has over 12 years of community banking experience and many more on the customer experience side of business. Her many strengths are in research, development and implementations skills. In her spare time, Linda enjoys giving back to the community and she cares deeply about our homeless and at-risk community members. A few of the agencies she supports are Catholic Charities, Nomadic Shelter and the Food Bank. She has also spent time working at the Tribal and County Health Fairs and prenatal women’s events. Linda enjoys spending time with her family, especially her three grandchildren.
